

SEEBOARD CARAVAN & CAMPING CLUB

GDPR Policy (General Data Protection Regulations)

1st edition 20th May 2018

The Club shall be known as "THE SEEBOARD CARAVAN AND CAMPING CLUB", referred to hereafter as "the Club"

GENERAL POLICY

Your data is retained by the Club for the purpose of organising rallies for its members and for maintain the Club membership through annual subscriptions.

This includes sending out rally information, invitations and renewal notices by letter, email or SMS text messages, accepting bookings and information about member's rally requirements such as food, extra nights and any special pitch requirements..

The use of a child's birth date is just for competitions age group banding.

Your avatar images that are optionally uploaded to the Club's web server via the new mobile booking application are only used by this one application to identify family members when specifying who's attending a rally.

You can view all your data held by the Club on the <UserData> tab on our website.

None of the data retained by the Club is used by anyone outside of the Club.

SECURITY & RETENTION

The data is stored on a secure sever within an encrypted database.

If you decide to leave the Club then you can request that all your data is deleted by emailing the Club administrator at admin@seeboard3c.co.uk